

It's just like the info said.

I'm here.

Seems to be about... two victims.

VSSH HH

One.
Three meter
class.

※Scene
Picture a city back alley.
It feels empty, like people
don't pass through it.
The time of day is evening to night.

※ The monster design is up to you.
It doesn't have to have the same
shape and figure as the one in the Name.
Whatever you'd like.

I'll contact you when I'm done.

I know.
No problem.

CHIT

GROWLLL

have anything to say

...Even if you did

※The main character design: He should have a hood that suits the overall production but it's not a necessity. You are free to design his features, hairstyle etc. yourself if you'd like. The weapon too, is up to you as long as it is "sword-like" in shape.

RRGGH

BWOOM

I wouldn't listen.

Die.
