※ The heroine's uniform: She's drawn with a sailor uniform here but a blazer-style uniform is okay too.

※ The heroine's design: She's got long hair and been drawn this way for ease of convenience, but we don't have any specific instructions for you like "she must have long hair!" so feel free to do her design as you like.

I can't catch a cold.

...I've gotta warm up

Because tomorrow, finally...
