About artist En Morikura

She is an illustrator. Her characters have soft hair that makes you want to touch it, and eyes that grab your attention. She captures the cuteness of girls in their everyday life using soft colors.

Known for:

Character design of Virtual YouTuber Kizuna AI, Anime "Neko ga Kureta Marui Shiawase", special New Years postcard for Japan Post, etc.

About the service

- No need to find forwarding services! All items can be shipped overseas

Items can be shipped to over 120 countries and regions. Fans from overseas do not need to struggle with forwarding services. They can purchase merchandise from their favorite artists directly from ART street.

*Please note that due to the COVID-19 situation, shipping to certain countries/regions is unavailable.

- With DNP's technology, the prints look just like the original artwork

DNP uses a printing technology called "Primo art". The print is as close as it can get to the original artwork. It can also be printed on an acrylic board, which is another type of merchandise we have.

The merchandise

As a start, 6 artwork from the artist En Morikura will be available as merchandise. There will be 3 prints and 3 acrylic prints available for each of the 6 artwork.
