MediBang has started a new event on ART street, and is now accepting entries.

Event name:

[100 hour limit] 2020 event

Draw the gift you want.

Tell us how much you want it.

You might receive the gift you drew.

Event start:

December 24, 12PM (JST)

About ART street

An online art community for illustration and manga managed by MediBang.

This event is for anyone! Those who will spend the holidays with their family, those who are stuck at work, those who are planning a remote date... We wanted to give everyone something fun to participate in!

What you need to do is draw something you want that is available on Amazon and post on ART street. In the description, you must include the Amazon URL, and tell us how much you want the product, maybe a sad story that will make us feel pity and feel like we need to send you the gift. If you post that in the 100 hour window, you might receive the gift you drew!

If the ART street feels "we MUST give them the gift", they will win the Amazon item!

Illustration theme & prize

Theme: The gift that you want

However! It must be something you can buy on Amazon!
Find a gift you want within the following budget, and draw it.

We want you to select a gift that is either about 50,000 yen, 30,000 yen, or 10,000 yen.

50,000 yen is pretty expensive for a Christmas gift, right?

If you ask for a gift that is way more than 50,000 yen, we will not consider it, no matter how convincing your story is.

Please select the price carefully!

For this event, you will not be judged by your art skills, but for your passion. (To a point...)

You can exaggerate your story too. (Again, to a point!)

Even if you don't draw that often, we want you to participate!

If there is something you want, please participate.
